for Corky's trip. Planning and organizing are now underway. If any questions contact Roberto Cruz ME 3-2564. VIVA CURKY GONZALES!!!!!!

COUNSELOR:

At the present the interviewing board is considering a Chicano for an advisor. We must develop our own criteria and demand that an U.M.A.S. member be on the interviewing board. LET US DETERMINE OUR OWN DESTINY!

SEP:

We are expecting about 200 Chicanos for next year and applied for 200 spaces in Lander Hall. All the Chicanos this year are urged to sign up for 2nd and 7th floor. At Housing Meeting on Friday May 2nd, we proposed that Chicano food be served, regulations be enforced and referred five people for floor advisors next year. We also proposed that one Chicano advisor be hired to every fifty students. On Friday another meeting was held with Harold Adams, Director of Admissions. The purpose was to review criteria of entering minority students.

TV PROGRAMS:

Channel 9 is developing a program for the Chicanos on May 12, it will include aspects of LA RAZA Y LA CAUSA, U.M.A.S. and the Chicanos of the Northwest. Erasmo Gamboa y "los viejos" are in charge.

SPEAKERS:

Dr. Sommers is trying to get the Latin-American department to help sponsor a speaker de LA RAZA. We have proposed that Octavio Romano be selected and Jesus Galarza as an alternate.

Pam Smith needs U.M.A.S. speakers for the local high schools and civic organizations. The talks will cover LA RAZA Y LA CAUSA, Chicano Power and Grape Boycott. A list will be in the office for people to sign up or contact Pam Smith-United Farm Workers office - MU 2-5990 or home LA 4-8140.

Lupe Gamboa was sent as a representative of U.M.A.S. to Salt Lake City for their Chicano Renaissance Week.

CLASS PROPOSALS:

Friday May 2 a group of Chicanos and Anglos held a meeting with Dean Phillips to talk over the Chicano class and future possibilities. The group proposed that Mexican-American History and Culture class 102 be offered in the Fall and a continuation. Also that other Chicano classes be developed for the Fall. Another proposal was that a Chicano Committee consisting of faculty and students be implemented to insure further action on the Chicano Classes.

RECRUITMENT:

A group left last weekend (May 2-5) for the valley to recruit Chicanos for next year. Another group will be going to the valley this coming weekend. Those interested contact Eron Malto 543-097.

.....Para sostener nuestro grupo necesitamos que participar.....
